We strongly advise that you follow these directions and not those given by any SatNav or AA route planner

From Tregony follow the A3078 to St. Mawes. Approximately 2 miles after passing through Trewithian look out for our brown Caravan and Camping sign

From the King Harry Ferry follow the B3289 to St. Mawes. After approximately 2 miles look out for our brown Caravan and Camping sign on the left hand side

From the M5 motorway at Exeter proceed to Junction 31, branch left to leave the Motorway and join the A30, signposted Okehampton. Continue on the A30 for approximately 60 miles. At the end of the Bodmin dual carriageway do not turn off the A30 for St Austell and Eden but continue along the new section of carriageway bypassing Victoria, past the Newquay turnoff. Once over the brow of the hill take a discreet turnoff left off A30 onto B3275 (previously A39) following signs for Ladock. This takes you under then over the dual carriageway. Continue straight through Ladock. 2 miles beyond Ladock turn right towards Truro and shortly afterwards (by Mercedes-Benz Garage) turn left towards St. Austell. After approximately 1 mile turn right onto A3078 towards Tregony/St. Mawes. Stay on A3078, over Tregony bridge and continue on following for St. Mawes. After about 5 miles you will reach Trewithian, and will start seeing our brown Caravan and Camping signs. You will find our approach lane two miles beyond Trewithian on the right hand side.
